Seminar Overview

The UxC Nuclear Fuel Training Seminar follows a unique format that takes place over a three-day period.

- The first day is devoted to an examination of current market and industry trends for the uranium, conversion, enrichment, and fabrication sectors, as well as presenting supply and demand outlooks, price forecasts, inventory holdings, and other key factors and trends affecting each market segment. Forecasts are presented and discussed for each of the four front-end markets and historical perspectives are incorporated to provide attendees with UxC's distinctive views of the nuclear fuel markets.
- The second day provides an in-depth discussion of critical market issues, such as price reporting and the latest practices in buying and selling, as well as key policy issues affecting the markets. UxC experts will be on hand to provide their perspective and experience on important topics affecting the nuclear fuel cycle.
- On the third day, the seminar shifts to group discussions and role-playing exercises to allow participants to put their newly gained knowledge into practice. Part of the day is split into two separate tracks: one for utility buyers focused on the best strategies for fuel procurement, and another track for non-utility attendees centered on sales and marketing strategies.

The primary aim of UxC's Nuclear Fuel Training Seminar is to provide a thorough nuclear fuel market education. Ample time for questions is included, both on a formal and informal basis, to ensure that attendees obtain maximum benefit from their time with UxC experts as well as through interactions with fellow participants.
